GOSPEL REFLECTION: John 16:12-15

We can't help but be struck by the poetic character of Jesus's words in this reading. We are aware that the Last Supper discourse of Jesus (John 13-17) is really His last will and testament and here He is referring to His Father and the Spirit. Just as the Father commissioned Jesus to reveal the truth about God to humanity so the apostles will be commissioned to carry on this work under the guidance of the Spirit. Jesus emphasises His oneness with the Father and includes the Spirit in the imagery of the Trinity's triangle of love.

We get a glimpse of fulfilment at this point realising that Jesus has come from God to bring us Truth. In a very real sense, He is performing the function of divine Wisdom who delights to mix with humans to impart Her gifts. Jesus is the fulfilment of all that Wisdom has to offer. When He goes, He will send the Spirit to complete the circle of Wisdom. He knows that what the disciples are unable to take in at this point they will later receive from the Spirit.

Thoughts of the Trinity may well remind us of the poetry of the prophets whose meditations on God represent a striving to express the inexpressible. We see in their works an attempt to reconcile the justice of God with the immeasurable love of the Presence, the high and lofty reality with the abiding closeness of God. - Laurie Woods

PETER'S PENCE COLLECTION:

Each year parishes in the Archdiocese of Brisbane take up the Peter's Pence collection as a retiring collection. The collection is to be taken at the Masses the weekend around the Feast of Sts Peter and Paul. Therefore, this year's collection will be taken up on the 28/29 June 2025.

The Peter's Pence collection gives Catholics in Australia an opportunity to join in communion with the Catholic faithful throughout the world in support of the charitable works of the Holy See.

The collection allows the Holy Father to respond to the most needy throughout the world, to offer timely, effective emergency assistance to our suffering brothers and sisters.

ARCHBISHOP MARK HAS A MESSAGE FOR YOU: This year is turning out to be a really significant time for the Church and our schools. We bade farewell to Pope Francis and gave thanks for his great legacy of Gospel witness to the Church and the world. We have also welcomed Pope Leo, whose commitment to a compassionate, inclusive and service-oriented Church will continue to shape our path. In these months we also look ahead to the appointment of a new Archbishop, trusting that he will lead the Archdiocese and Brisbane Catholic Education as part of it into a new chapter, building on all that has gone before with fresh energy and vision. Changes of leadership are important, but there also broader and deeper changes upon us. An old Chinese proverb says that when the winds of change are blowing some people build walls, others windmills. As pilgrims of hope, we are building windmills and teaching the young to do the same. Come Holy Spirit, wind that blows from heaven.	ST PAUL'S PARISH, WOODRIDGE BANK DETAILS: For those who wish to donate directly online- Thank you. Our prayers and warm wishes are extended to your parents, Godparents, extended families and friends.	DAD JOKES: KIT & ANDREW CHILVERS The Earth's surface is 70 per cent water. That water is uncarbonated. Therefore, the Earth is flat. PRAYERS FOR YOU: That you, being rooted and grounded in love, may be able to comprehend with all the saints what is the width and length and depth and height – to know the love of Christ which passes knowledge; that you may be filled with all the fullness of God. - Ephesians 3:17-19
